

Charlotte Graesser Henderson is the Library Services Manager for the Arizona offices of Quarles & Brady LLP, and the Knowledge Management Liaison for three practice areas firm-wide. She is the past president of the Arizona Association of Law Libraries and has been a presenter for numerous educational and professional programs, including the National Business Institute, Institute for Paralegal Education, and the American Association of Law Libraries. Ms Henderson has been a guest speaker for Phoenix College and Phoenix School of Law, and has authored several articles on the subject of legal information.